Staff Changes

Miss Ryan has resigned to travel around the world for six months. We thank Miss Ryan for the work she has completed at Christ Church, particularly her work in computing over the last year.

We wish Miss Ryan well in her new endeavours including climbing Mount Kinabalu in Eastern Malaysia and visiting the orang-utans in Borneo.

Miss Lutton, who has been in school recently, will become the new YR5 teacher and teach computing across the school after the October half term.

Unfortunately, Mrs Jenkinson has resigned too. Mrs Jenkinson is returning to nursing. We thank Mrs Jenkinson for all the work she has done for the school in the last six years, particularly her reading interventions which have always secured such good pupil progress.

Miss Bayağ who has been in school in recent weeks will provide teaching assistant support in school after the October half term.
