

Meet the Governors

Jane McFadyen – I have been Chair of Governors since 2024 and a governor at Christ Church Primary since 2016. I was head teacher at another school for several years before retiring.

Linsley de la Hunt – I have been a governor at Christ Church Primary for many years. I am a retired NHS hospital consultant and enjoy working as a volunteer in school every Monday.

Keith Reader – I worked in primary schools for 25 years, followed by eight years working for Safeguarding Children Services. Christ Church Primary School will always be special to me as I was head teacher here from 1998 until 2003.

Timothy Wigglesworth – I moved to Newcastle in 2007 with my work as a barrister. I am a churchwarden at St. Nicholas Cathedral and was asked to be a governor at Christ Church Primary in January 2019, which I was delighted to accept.

Rev Cannon Ruth Hulse –

Newcastle Cathedrals Cannon for Worship and Congregational Life

Brenda Garbutt – I have been involved with education for 37 years. I worked at Christ Church in school administration and have been an associate governor for several years.

Jon Rippon - I have been Churchwarden at Christ Church since 2020. For the past 30 years I have worked as a town planner in Newcastle. As a result I have a good understand of issues affecting the area.

Megan Power - Deputy Head Teacher, Christ Church Primary School.

Katy Stoman – I am a parent governor, my son attended this school and my daughter currently attends. Before taking a career break to have my children, I was a secondary school geography teacher so I am very much used to life in schools.

Tigist Tegegne – I am a parent governor, my daughter and son attend this school. I was a primary school teacher in Ethiopia and completed a college placement at Christ Church.
